Use Only for 403(b) Plans with UMB Bank, n.a. as Custodian

HARTFORDFUNDS

Our benchmark is the investor.®

Use this form to request a 403(b) Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). Please read the instructions carefully to complete the form. Hartford Funds strongly recommends that you consult with your qualified tax professional for any tax questions pertaining to distributions taken from your retirement plans. A separate RMD request must be completed for each qualified mutual fund account from which a minimum distribution will be taken. These instructions apply only to the account owner, not to beneficiaries.

General Information

The age as of when you must begin receiving required minimum distributions changed for taxable years beginning January 1, 2023. If you attain age 73 after December 31, 2022, the age at which you must begin required minimum distributions is now age 73 or the year you retired from the employer that sponsored or maintained your 403(b) plan. However, if you did attain at least age 72 by December 31, 2022, the new age 73 requirement does not apply and you must continue to take your required minimum distribution.

Note: A 5% owner of the 403(b) plan sponsor must begin distributions upon attainment of RMD age, even if still employed.

Rollover/Transfer Monies

If assets were rolled over/transferred into your 403(b) account from another company during the current tax year and you prefer that Hartford Funds calculate the RMD amount on these assets, you must submit a copy of the year-end statement from the previous company to provide us with the December 31st balance. If the year-end statement is not available, provide the year-end value in Section E - Direct Transfer/Rollovers, Prior Year-End Value Information. If the previous company's year-end balance is not provided, the RMD calculation will be based on the amount represented by rollover/transfer assets received for the current tax year, which may or may not be the correct RMD amount. RMD requests received in good order will be processed on the date received unless Hartford Funds is otherwise instructed.

Section A - Hartford Funds Account Owner Information

Owner Name	Account Number	Date of Birth (mm/dd/yyyy)
Residential Address (required)	City	State	ZIP Code
Owner Social Security	Telephone Number

Section B - Method for Calculating Annual Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) Amount

To calculate the RMD for the current tax year for a 403(b) account, the December 31 value of the prior tax year is divided by the applicable distribution factor taken from the IRS "Uniform Life Table" unless a special exception applies as described below. If your spouse has been sole primary beneficiary since the start of the year and is more than 10 years younger than you, and you would like us to calculate your RMD, please provide spouse's date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy): _____

Note: 403(b) contributions made before 1987 may be exempt from RMDs, if certain requirements have been met. Please consult your tax advisor with any questions.

Section C - Distribution Election

Select one of the following two options:

Option 1 - Enroll in the Automatic Required Minimum Distribution Program

This program is for mutual fund 403(b) account owners who wish to receive only the amount necessary to satisfy their annual RMD requirement from their Hartford Funds 403(b) account.

Payments will continue while the owner is living unless a request to terminate the program is received. Upon your death, your beneficiary(ies) RMD payments will depend on the identity of the beneficiary and the current IRS rules in effect at the time of death.

Payments will be distributed proportionately based on the values in each investment selection.

If you are eligible, and elect to defer your first RMD payment to April 1 of the calendar year following the year in which you attained RMD age, or, if later, retire from the employer that sponsored your plan, the deferred RMD amount will be distributed on April 1 of the year following the year you attained RMD age (or retire, if applicable). A subsequent distribution will be distributed no later than December 31 of the same year. In the following years, all subsequent payment will be distributed by December 31, unless instructed otherwise.

Select only one of the following:

Calculate the RMD for the current tax year and all subsequent tax years.

Calculate and distribute the RMD for the prior tax year, current tax year, and all subsequent tax years, using the current IRS regulations. Hartford Funds determines the current tax year by when the form is signed and dated.

Note: If left blank, the RMD amount will be sent annually on the anniversary date on which the form was received in good order. In addition, the payment frequency election does not apply to a first year RMD payment deferred until the April 1st of the year after the calendar year in which you reach RMD Age 70½ or if later, you retire from the employer sponsoring the 403(b) plan.

Payment Frequency (select one):

Monthly Quarterly Semi-annually Annually

RMD requests received in good order will be processed on the date received unless otherwise instructed.

If you are eligible and elect to defer your first RMD amount to April 1 of the calendar year following the year in which you have reached RMD Age, only the first year's RMD amount will be distributed unless otherwise instructed. A new RMD request form will need to be submitted to withdraw the second RMD prior to December 31.

Any amount in excess of the RMD amount may be subject to appropriate charges.

Calculate the amount and distribute my first RMD for the current tax year only (no later than the April 1st of the year after the calendar year in which you reach RMD Age).

Section D - State Income Tax Withholding

Hartford Funds may be required to withhold state tax from your distribution based upon state tax law for your state of residency. Your state of residency is determined by the legal address of record on your account. We recommend that you contact your tax professional regarding your tax withholding elections, and to answer any questions that you may have regarding your state's withholding laws.

Section E - Federal Income Tax Withholding (Required)

Naming a payee other than the account owner does not relieve the owner of any tax liability.

Federal tax law requires withholding at the following default rates: (i) for non-periodic distributions, a mandatory 20% withholding of federal income tax must be withheld from taxable distributions, unless the distribution is based on life expectancy, part of a series of payments for 10 or more years, Required Minimum Distribution, or is directly rolled over to an IRA of your own. If an exception to the 20% mandatory withholding applies, 10% of the taxable distributions under a Lump Sum Payment will be withheld unless instructed otherwise. You may elect not to have taxes withheld if you meet one of the exceptions to the 20% mandatory withholding or you may specify a different withholding amount. If an exception to the 20% mandatory rules applies, you may revoke or change this withholding election at any time.

Hartford Funds - 403(b) RMD Request Form

Use Only for 403(b) Plans with UMB Bank, n.a. as Custodian

Account Number: _____

Unless otherwise instructed, Hartford Funds will withhold the minimum amount required for federal income tax as indicated in this section. The distribution you receive may be subject to additional federal income tax withholding. You may direct Hartford Funds not to withhold taxes. You may also be subject to tax penalties under the estimated payment rules if your payment of estimated tax and withholding are not adequate.

If any portion of your payment is not an eligible rollover distribution, as discussed in the General Information section (i.e.: Required Minimum Distributions) but is taxable, the 20% mandatory withholding rules do not apply. Complete the attached Form W-4R, Withholding Certificate for Nonperiodic Payments and Eligible Rollover Distributions, to indicate your federal tax withholding election. Use whole percentages only. Return the completed and signed Form W-4R with this completed and signed IRA distribution request form. If Form W-4R is not returned, incomplete, or indicates partial percentage withholding, we must withhold 10% of the payment for federal income tax and we cannot honor requests to have a lower (or no) amount withheld.

If you have enrolled in the Automatic Required Minimum Distribution Program, you may change your federal withholding election at any time by calling us at (888) 843-7824 or by completing and submitting a new Form W-4R. You can obtain another copy of Form W-4R at www.irs.gov/forms-instructions.

Section F - Direct Transfer/Rollovers, Prior Year-end Value Information (complete if applicable)

Ideally, the Required Minimum Distribution for the current year should be taken from your previous company prior to transferring/rolling qualified assets to Hartford Funds.

If the RMD for the current year was not taken prior to the qualified asset transfer/rollover from another company and you elect to have Hartford Funds calculate the current year's RMD amount, you must submit a copy of the prior year-end statement from the previous company to provide us with the December 31st balance.

If the year-end value is not provided, the RMD calculation will be based on the gross assets represented by rollover/transfer assets received for the current tax year, which may or may not be the correct RMD amount.

- Attached is a copy of the prior year-end statement(s) from my previous company. This value should be used for calculating the RMD amount for the current tax year.
- The prior year-end statement was not available. The amount which should be used for calculating the RMD amount for the current year is $ _____

Section G - Distribution/Payment Instructions

Unless instructed otherwise, your RMD amount will be mailed to your current address of record.

You have the option to reinvest your RMD from your qualified 403(b) account with Hartford Funds into a non-qualified account with Hartford Funds. If you reinvest into the same class of shares, your purchase into the non-qualified account is not subject to a sales charge, and will be invested at Net Asset Value (NAV). Please note that if you reinvest the RMD payment in this manner, the RMD will still be taxable income to you.

If you elect to reinvest your RMD with Hartford Funds, and do not have an existing non-qualified mutual fund account, you must return a completed account application with the RMD form. Applications are available on our website at hartfordfunds.com. Please refer to the prospectus for minimum initial investment amounts.

1a First name and middle initial	Last name	1b Social security number
Address
City or town, state, and ZIP code

Your withholding rate is determined by the type of payment you will receive.

- For nonperiodic payments, the default withholding rate is 10%. You can choose to have a different rate by entering a rate between 0% and 100% on line 2. Generally, you can't choose less than 10% for payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.
- For an eligible rollover distribution, the default withholding rate is 20%. You can choose a rate greater than 20% by entering the rate on line 2. You may not choose a rate less than 20%.

See page 2 for more information.

2 Complete this line if you would like a rate of withholding that is different from the default withholding rate. See the instructions on page 2 and the Marginal Rate Tables below for additional information. Enter the rate as a whole number (no decimals)	2	%

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4R, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4R.

Purpose of form. Complete Form W-4R to have payers withhold the correct amount of federal income tax from your nonperiodic payment or eligible rollover distribution from an employer retirement plan, annuity (including a commercial annuity), or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). See page 2 for the rules and options that are available for each type of payment. Don't use Form W-4R for periodic payments (payments made in installments at regular intervals over a period of more than 1 year) from these plans or arrangements. Instead, use Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Periodic Pension or Annuity Payments. For more information on withholding, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Caution: If you have too little tax withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty unless you make timely payments of estimated tax. If too much tax is withheld, you will generally be due a refund when you file your tax return. Your withholding choice (or an election not to have withholding on a nonperiodic payment) will generally apply to any future payment from the same plan or IRA. Submit a new Form W-4R if you want to change your election.

2023 Marginal Rate Tables

You may use these tables to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. Add your income from all sources and use the column that matches your filing status to find the corresponding rate of withholding. See page 2 for more information on how to use this table.

* If married filing separately, use $360,725 instead for this 37% rate.

Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding. Your payer must withhold at a default 10% rate from the taxable amount of nonperiodic payments unless you enter a different rate on line 2. Distributions from an IRA that are payable on demand are treated as nonperiodic payments. Note that the default rate of withholding may not be appropriate for your tax situation. You may choose to have no federal income tax withheld by entering “-0-” on line 2. See the specific instructions below for more information. Generally, you are not permitted to elect to have federal income tax withheld at a rate of less than 10% (including “-0-”) on any payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.

Note: If you don't give Form W-4R to your payer, you don't provide an SSN, or the IRS notifies the payer that you gave an incorrect SSN, then the payer must withhold 10% of the payment for federal income tax and can't honor requests to have a lower (or no) amount withheld. Generally, for payments that began before 2023, your current withholding election (or your default rate) remains in effect unless you submit a Form W-4R.

Eligible rollover distributions—20% withholding. Distributions you receive from qualified retirement plans (for example, 401(k) plans and section 457(b) plans maintained by a governmental employer) or tax-sheltered annuities that are eligible to be rolled over to an IRA or qualified plan are subject to a 20% default rate of withholding on the taxable amount of the distribution. You can't choose withholding at a rate of less than 20% (including “-0-”). Note that the default rate of withholding may be too low for your tax situation. You may choose to enter a rate higher than 20% on line 2. Don't give Form W-4R to your payer unless you want more than 20% withheld.

Note that the following payments are not eligible rollover distributions: (a) qualifying “hardship” distributions, and (b) distributions required by federal law, such as required minimum distributions. See Pub. 505 for details. See also Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding above.

Payments to nonresident aliens and foreign estates. Do not use Form W-4R. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information.

Tax relief for victims of terrorist attacks. If your disability payments for injuries incurred as a direct result of a terrorist attack are not taxable, enter “-0-” on line 2. See Pub. 3920, Tax Relief for Victims of Terrorist Attacks, for more details.

Specific Instructions

Line 1b

For an estate, enter the estate's employer identification number (EIN) in the area reserved for “Social security number.”

Line 2

More withholding. If you want more than the default rate withheld from your payment, you may enter a higher rate on line 2.

Less withholding (nonperiodic payments only). If permitted, you may enter a lower rate on line 2 (including “-0-”) if you want less than the 10% default rate withheld from your payment. If you have already paid, or plan to pay, your tax on this payment through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you may want to enter “-0-”.

Suggestion for determining withholding. Consider using the Marginal Rate Tables on page 1 to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. The tables are most accurate if the appropriate amount of tax on all other sources of income, deductions, and credits has been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments. If the appropriate amount of tax on those sources of income has not been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you can pay that tax through withholding on this payment by entering a rate that is greater than the rate in the Marginal Rate Tables.

The marginal tax rate is the rate of tax on each additional dollar of income you receive above a particular amount of income. You can use the table for your filing status as a guide to find a rate of withholding for amounts above the total income level in the table.

To determine the appropriate rate of withholding from the table, do the following. Step 1: Find the rate that corresponds with your total income not including the payment. Step 2: Add your total income and the taxable amount of the payment and find the corresponding rate.

If these two rates are the same, enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 1 below.)

If the two rates differ, multiply (a) the amount in the lower rate bracket by the rate for that bracket, and (b) the amount in the higher rate bracket by the rate for that bracket. Add these two numbers; this is the expected tax for this payment. To get the rate to have withheld, divide this amount by the taxable amount of the payment. Round up to the next whole number and enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 2 below.)

If you prefer a simpler approach (but one that may lead to overwithholding), find the rate that corresponds to your total income including the payment and enter that rate on line 2.

Examples. Assume the following facts for Examples 1 and 2. Your filing status is single. You expect the taxable amount of your payment to be $20,000. Appropriate amounts have been withheld for all other sources of income and any deductions or credits.

Example 1. You expect your total income to be $60,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $60,000, is greater than $58,575 but less than $109,225, the corresponding rate is 22%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $80,000, is greater than $58,575 but less than $109,225, the corresponding rate is 22%. Because these two rates are the same, enter “22” on line 2.

Example 2. You expect your total income to be $42,500 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $42,500, is greater than $24,850 but less than $58,575, the corresponding rate is 12%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $62,500, is greater than $58,575 but less than $109,225, the corresponding rate is 22%. The two rates differ. $16,075 of the $20,000 payment is in the lower bracket ($58,575 less your total income of $42,500 without the payment), and $3,925 is in the higher bracket ($20,000 less the $16,075 that is in the lower bracket). Multiply $16,075 by 12% to get $1,929. Multiply $3,925 by 22% to get $863.50. The sum of these two amounts is $2,792.50. This is the estimated tax on your payment. This amount corresponds to 14% of the $20,000 payment ($2,792.50 divided by $20,000). Enter “14” on line 2.
