

Coverdell Education Savings Account (ESA) Death Claim Form for Hartford Funds Accounts

HARTFORDFUNDS

Our benchmark is the investor.*

Use this form for Coverdell Education Savings Accounts where UMB Bank, n.a. is Custodian. This form is used for two purposes:

1. To establish a Death Beneficiary Coverdell ESA following the death of the initial Student, or
2. To appoint a new Responsible Individual upon the death of the previous Responsible Individual.

You should consult with a professional tax advisor regarding any questions concerning this Coverdell ESA.

Death Beneficiary Claiming Account

The Student is referred to as the "designated beneficiary" in the Custodial Agreement. As of the Student's date of death, the Death Beneficiary must be:

1. Under the age of 30 (unless an individual with special needs) and
2. A member of the original Student's family (subject to the limitations in the Internal Revenue Code).

If the Death Beneficiary is the Student's estate, the Tax Identification Number (TIN) of the estate is required in section B. Please complete all applicable sections for the request to be processed. Incomplete information provided on this form may delay death benefit processing. Each Death Beneficiary of the Coverdell ESA must complete his/her own Coverdell ESA Death Claim Form.

New Responsible Individual

If the initial Responsible Individual dies or becomes incapacitated while the Student is a minor under applicable state law, the successor Responsible Individual will be the individual previously designated as successor Responsible Individual, or if none, the other parent of the Student shall be the Responsible Individual. If there is no other parent (or such parent is incapacitated), the new Responsible Individual will be the Student's successor guardian as appointed under state law.

If the Responsible Individual dies or becomes incapacitated after the Student reaches the age of majority under applicable state law, the Student will be the successor Responsible Individual.

Please note: To change the Responsible Individual, you must complete sections A, B and E.

Section A - Deceased Student or Responsible Individual

Name	Social Security Number
Account Number	Date of Death (mm/dd/yyyy)

Section B - Death Beneficiary or Successor Responsible Individual Information

If the Death Beneficiary is the estate of the deceased Student, the deceased Student's Social Security Number (SSN) cannot be used in this section. Each Death Beneficiary of the Coverdell ESA must complete his/her own Death Claim Form for Coverdell Education Savings Accounts.

Please Note: As of the deceased Student's date of death, the Death Beneficiary must be (i) under the age of 30 (unless an individual with special needs) and (ii) a member of the deceased Student's family. See the Disclosure Statement for a description of the Student's family members who can be Death Beneficiaries.

Section C - Death Beneficiary Options - complete as applicable

Please Note: Your property may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity occurs in the account within the time frame specified by state law.

1. Rollover As Own Coverdell ESA - A Death Beneficiary may choose to roll the original Student's Coverdell ESA into a Coverdell ESA of their own either invested in Hartford Funds, with UMB Bank, n.a. as Custodian or with another company. If transferring to another company, a Letter of Acceptance is required.
2. Distribution - A Death Beneficiary may choose to withdraw some or all of the current account value. If the distribution exceeds the Death Beneficiary's "qualified elementary and secondary expenses" or "qualified higher education expenses" for the year, the portion of the excess distribution representing earnings may be taxable to the Death Beneficiary. The amount may be subject to a 10% penalty tax, unless an exception applies. The partial distribution will be taken out pro-rata based on the current market value of the funds in your fund.

Section F - Successor Primary and Contingent Death Beneficiary Designation

Use this section to name successor Death Beneficiaries to this Coverdell ESA, if the Death Beneficiary listed in Section B above dies before receiving payment of the entire account balance.

See the Custodial Agreement for important information about designating a death beneficiary.

All fields are required and if designating more than one primary or contingent death beneficiary, the percentages for both must equal 100%; otherwise, they will be assigned equal percentages. If the primary or contingent death beneficiary box is not selected, the beneficiary listed will be considered a primary death beneficiary. If you require more space, please attach a separate page.

Have you...

- enclosed a Tax Waiver form if the deceased Student's state of residency is in a tax waiver state?
Note: Tax waivers can be obtained through a local county courthouse or by contacting the state's Department of Revenue. Please speak to your tax advisor regarding any questions concerning distributions from this Coverdell ESA.
- completed Section A informing us of the deceased Student or initial Responsible Individual?
- completed all of Section B, including your telephone number in case we need additional information?
Note: If the Death Beneficiary is an estate, the deceased Student Social Security Number (SSN) cannot be used in Section B. The Tax Identification Number (TIN) of the estate is required.
- completed Section C by selecting a method of distribution, if applicable?
- completed Section D instructing us how to send the money, if taking a distribution?
- completed Section E by signing the form with a medallion signature guarantee? The Responsible Individual must sign this form in all cases. If a Death Beneficiary is claiming the Coverdell ESA, the Death Beneficiary must also sign this form.
- if you are a non-resident alien, enclosed a IRS Form W-8BEN form and individual taxpayer identification number?
