

Hartford Funds IRA Beneficiary Change Request Form

HARTFORDFUNDS

Our benchmark is the investor.®

This form should be completed when making changes to the current beneficiary designation on your account. Provide all information requested in each section of this form. Use this form only for IRA plans with UMB Bank, n.a. as custodian.

Requests may be submitted via fax to Attn: Hartford Funds at 1-888-802-0039.

General Information

All beneficiary changes become effective on the date that we receive a complete and valid request, provided you are living on that date.

For accounts owned by a custodian, Hartford Funds does not maintain beneficiary designations; the custodian is the beneficiary of the account. Contact the custodian to change any beneficiary designations.

Account owners that reside in a community property state (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NV, NM, TX, WA, WI, Puerto Rico, and Guam) and designate a primary beneficiary other than a spouse, must complete section D, Spousal Consent for Change of Beneficiary in a Community Property State.

"Per will" is not an acceptable beneficiary designation.

Residents of DC will have state income tax withheld of at least the state's minimum requirements if federal income tax is withheld. You may also request an additional amount of state tax withholding.

Residents of MI will have state income tax withheld regardless of whether or not federal tax is withheld. Please refer to the Additional Information section for more state tax withholding information.

How are my Death Benefits Paid to my Beneficiaries?

Single Primary Beneficiary - If the only named primary beneficiary predeceases the account owner, and a new primary beneficiary designation is not provided, the death benefit will be paid to any named contingent beneficiaries. In the absence of any surviving named contingent beneficiaries, the remaining proceeds will be paid to your estate.

Multiple Primary Beneficiaries - If you named more than one primary beneficiary and a primary beneficiary predeceases the account owner, the remaining primary beneficiaries will receive the non-surviving primary beneficiary's share in proportion to the relative percentage share of the surviving primary beneficiaries. If no primary beneficiaries are living, the death benefit would be paid to any contingent beneficiaries. In the absence of any surviving named contingent beneficiaries, the remaining proceeds will be paid to your estate.

If you do not elect to designate a primary beneficiary, your account will be paid to your estate. If you designate your spouse as beneficiary, your divorce or other legal termination of the marriage will automatically revoke your designation. You may designate your former spouse as beneficiary by completing a new IRA Beneficiary Change Request Form after your divorce is final.

If a beneficiary passes away after the share-owner, but before the death benefit is paid, that portion of the death benefit will be paid to the deceased beneficiary's estate.

For purposes of beneficiary designations, the term "spouse" means the person to whom you are legally married, as determined under federal tax law.
